JOHN O.N. ELUWA FOUNDER & ATTORNEY MANAGING MEMBER

John Eluwa is licensed to practice in all North Carolina State Courts, the United States Federal District Court of Eastern District of North Carolina; all Immigration Courts of the 50 States of the United States. He has been practicing immigration and criminal defense law for nearly two decades. He represents families who have applied for permanent residence for their spouses, children, and other close relatives; people seeking to lawfully enter and reside in the United States and later apply for citizenship. He also works on behalf of businesses and industries that sponsor highly skilled foreign workers seeking to enter the United States in a temporary or in some cases on a permanent basis. He represents and defends distressed people who find themselves in removal/deportation proceedings in Immigration Court.

In addition to his immigration practice, John Eluwa is an experienced attorney who successfully represents many clients with various traffic violations and criminal charges. Other areas of practice include personal injury, juvenile delinquency, abuse neglect and dependency Law. He provides face-to-face consultations to potential clients both in the office and at locations pre-arranged with clients.

John Eluwa is a graduate of North Carolina Central University School of Law, Durham, North Carolina. His earlier beginnings were working as a Legal Intern for the former East Central Community Legal Services; a Real Property Title Researcher for Durham County Engineering Department; an Associate with the former Jones & Avery Attorneys at Law Firm; and later joined Carolina Power and Light Company (CP&L), now (Duke Progress Energy) Litigation Support Staff as a Case Manager in the early 1990's. He founded the Law Offices of John Eluwa March 1995. The office was later incorporated as a Professional Limited Liability Corporation (PLLC) in 2003. He is a member and serves on various local bar organizations. He is also a member of American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), a national bar association of thousands of attorneys and law professors who practice and teach immigration law all over the globe.

In his efforts to continue in serving the general public, John Eluwa participates in and helps organize local immigration seminars. He renders other community services by contributing and participating in a non-profit radio (WSHA - Raleigh, NC) program where he also serves as a Community Advisory Board Member; and a local Raleigh Television Network (RTN - Raleigh, NC) show - Legal Eagles.

EXECUTIVE BIOS

GAIL L. ELUWA CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Gail L. Eluwa is the Law Offices of John Eluwa, PLLC's, Chief Operating Officer (COO) who is responsible for all of the financial and administrative functions.

Mrs. Eluwa directs the operational and financial functions of the law offices by providing leadership and direction to the Office Team in accounting/finance, technology, marketing, and office services. She is also responsible for identifying and planning for the changing needs of the organization, including strategic and succession planning, practice management, and risk management.

Mrs. Eluwa keeps the Executive Committee current on all activity within the law offices; motivates, leads and mentors the high performing Office Team to increase the level of communication and interrelationships between personnel and clients. As COO, Mrs. Eluwa remains knowledgeable of market conditions and competitor trends and establishes key performance indicators for the management of the law offices.

Among Mrs. Eluwa's many talents and undeniable generosity for her community, she has more than 15 years of executive legal management experience holding positions for a U.S. Congressional Office as Lead Congressional Liaison with the responsibility of supervising a team of case workers while performing community outreach for seven counties in the Congressional District until 2012. This experience, in addition to her many skills, has provided her with knowledge in legal office administration, finance, human resources, marketing, records/conflict, mergers/acquisitions, relocations, and practice areas.

Mrs. Eluwa is a graduate of North Carolina State University (NCSU) and a 2015 candidate for a Masters in Business Administration with a concentration in Global Management. She is also a Real Estate Broker and has several years in property management experience.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Law Offices of John Eluwa, PLLC Prepares for Twenty Year Anniversary

Law Offices Thanks Community for Contributing to Success of Practice

RALEIGH, NC – 2015 is the year that the Law Offices of John Eluwa, PLLC, celebrates its Twenty Year Anniversary.

At this memorable time, we are preparing for the 2015 celebration if the Law Offices of John Eluwa, PLLC, by reflecting on our past while looking forward to the future.

Founded in 1995, the Law Offices of John Eluwa, PLLC (formerly Law Offices of John Eluwa), established itself under the guidance of John Eluwa, Esq. Since immigrating to the United States himself in 1981, Mr. Eluwa has worked diligently to earn the privilege to practice in all North Carolina State Courts, the United States Federal District Court of Eastern District of North Carolina; and all Immigration Courts of the 50 States of the United States. He chose the field of Immigration Law because he wanted to give back to the very community that welcomed him so many years ago when he first attended Shaw University.

Since earning his law degree and opening the doors of the firm in 1995, he has been practicing immigration and criminal defense law for two decades. Mr. Eluwa represents families who have applied for permanent residence for their spouses, children, and other close relatives; people seeking to lawfully enter and reside in the United States and later apply for citizenship. Mr. Eluwa also works on behalf of businesses and industries that sponsor highly skilled foreign workers seeking to enter the United States in a temporary or in some cases on a permanent basis. He has also represented and defended distressed people who find themselves in removal/deportation proceedings in Immigration Court.

Since the firm's opening, Mr. Eluwa and his experienced team now offers diverse expertise in Immigration Law, Criminal Defense, Traffic Violations, and Personal Injury Claims. The firm's primary goal is to effectively work for the justice of its clients.

After twenty years of continuous effort, the Law Offices of John Eluwa, PLLC, has become a comprehensive law firm that has successfully represented clients from numerous countries, providing all clients with high-quality legal services.

On behalf of everyone at the Law Offices of John Eluwa, PLLC, we would like to express our sincerest gratitude and best wishes to you, and hope that you will join us for the future festivities we can continue to grow on our current success together.
